

To Whom it may Concern,

Sullen Clothing Inc is a proud sponsor of Dennis Martinez, 'Off The Street', and all other positive and productive programs he is involved with. Dennis Martinez is constantly trying to better our youth with his rehabilitation programs while counseling our youth. Today, more than ever, these young adults that come from broken homes, low income neighborhoods, and street life culture need help and guidance on how to be a productive citizen. Dennis has the experience and stories to guide these young adults in the right direction. That is why Sullen is proud to be a part of Dennis Martinez' programs.
